News From the Frontlines!

Men...

We live in a world at war. The enemy we face has his crosshairs set on our hearts, our marriages, our children, and our true purpose.

Good news from the frontlines...You are not alone in this fight.

You were made for something more - and you know it. Somewhere along the way, you may have lost the heart to fight back. Your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to join with the men of Beltway and around the Big Country to reclaim what has been stolen. I challenge you on May 19, 2011, to join us for Beltway Bootcamp.
